MUCH INTEREST IS BEING TAKEN

In Election to be Held Tuesday Week.

Fully a Hundred Called To See If Their Names Were Properly Registered Yesterday While About Twenty Five New Names Were Added—Both Sides Are Quite Active—Those Who Do Not Trust People's Ability to Rule Will Have Hard Time Concealing Fact, Says Mr. Justice.

The interest in the election on the commission plan of government to be held Tuesday is steadily growing and the registration will doubtless be the largest in the history of the city. About 25 voters registered yesterday, while fully a hundred who voted in the last election called to see if their names were properly enrolled. Unless one registered for the school bond issue election last spring he will have to register if he desires to vote.

Both the advocates and the opponents of the new charter were busy yesterday discussing the points at issue with the voters. As is stated elsewhere the advocates will hold a public meeting Monday night in the court house, to which all who oppose the charter are invited to come and state their objections so they may be met by argument from the other side. The communications in yesterday's Telegram were also discussed at length, some favoring the writers and others opposing their contentions. In speaking of the two column communication one of the new charter advocates pointed out to a reporter last night some defects in the argument set forth by the writers. Said he:

"Last year $12,806.35 was spent in maintaining the fire department, according to the statement of Messrs. Bain and Coble, and further down they state that the department, properly maintained, under the commission plan will cost $10,000, which means a saving of $2,806.35. They state that the salary list at present is $8,126.78, but they do not include the salary of $2,400 at present paid the chairman of the Water & Light Commission, nor the commission of $2,600 the tax collector receives, which added to the item mentioned by them makes the salaries at present $13,126.72. They figure that the total salaries under the commission plan would be $15,000, or $1,873.28 more than is paid at present. Take the $2,806.35 that will, according to their figures, be saved in the fire department alone and deduct the $1,873.28 allowed for salaries above the present amount of salaries and you will have a net gain for the city of $932.97. So you have all salaries accounted for and nearly a thousand dollars above and if the other departments will show up as good accordingly then it can be seen that there would be a saving of several thousand dollars each year."

Mr. E. J. Justice was seen yesterday afternoon by a reporter and asked what he thought of the points made by the opposition. He said:

"I was pleased to see while in Asheville this morning that our cause in proposing our commission form of government has been justified by the wisdom of a large proportion of the people of Asheville. A committee or 100 was appointed to draft a charter for Asheville and they in turn appointed a subcommittee of seven, which is ready to report and they will recommend three commissioners, one of whom is to be mayor and commissioner of accounts and finances, another commissioner of public works and the third commissioner of public safety, and they will recommend the initiative, referendum and recall upon petition of 25 per cent. of the voters.

"I have noticed the arguments in today's papers against the commission form of government, and I am reminded by them of the fact that everywhere the commission form of government has been proposed among the most active opponents to it are officeholders under the old plan, and particularly salaried officers.

"Our plan proposes that every lawyer, banker, doctor, carpenter, merchant, railroad employee, manufacturer, and any other citizen in the city of Greensboro who is a qualified voter shall have an equal voice in the city's affairs.

"Men who have confidence in the integrity of the voters and who really believe in government by the people generally, any kind of machinery that will make it easy for the people to control, and those who do not trust the people's ability to rule will have a hard time to conceal this fact while opposing the commission form of government.

"The only fair way and indeed the only intelligent way to discuss a question like this is for each side to present its argument, in the presence of each other, and apply the same principle as in the trial of law suits. In this way any misunderstanding or misstatements on the part of either side can be answered. It is usually the side that is in the wrong that avoids public discussion in the presence of the adversary, and with the right to reply. It must be remembered that the proposed charter was formed in the open at public meetings in the court house and it must further be borne in mind that the advocates of it unanimously voted to submit it to the people, and but few of the opponents helped to make it better by offering their suggestions at these meetings.

"My experience and observation have been that matters of this kind will be considered by the people on their merits and while they may misunderstand the facts at first they can be relied upon to both talk and act wisely.

"I hand you some of the arguments being used in Asheville in support of a commission form of government:"

Asheville Citizen: In the ninety-six cities of the United States which have so far adopted the commission form of municipal government, the elections which preceded the change gave rise to to no great opposition, outside of that which naturally came from the office holders who were dispossessed of good paying jobs. Such opposition was to be expected, yet it is a matter of record that in some of the cities where the change was effected the very office holders who were relieved from further duty became active supporters of the commission movement because, being conscientious men, and believing in the right of the people to exercise a voice in their own municipal government, they could not without serious question stand in the way of a groundswell.

And no man, upon serious reflection, can deny the wisdom of the people in seeking, at any time they see fit, to participate in the conduct of their own corporation. Look at it any way you will, a municipality is a corporation, created and organized by the people and supported by them. If in the course of time the stockholders deem it expedient to bring about a new order of things, either in the interests of economy or by way of experiment to that end, such action cannot be construed as in anyway reflecting upon the retiring officers, and this statement can be applied with particular force to the local situation. The present movement in this city which looks to the establishment of a commission form of government is not born of dissatisfaction with the city administration, nor is there any covert design to discredit it. A large portion of our citizenship believes that if the commission form of government has effected great saving and lower taxation for the cities which have adopted it, such results may be obtained here. These views no one can with dignity or fairness abuse or impugn.

The Famine in China.

The Christian Herald of New York is calling loudly today for contributions (as it did four years ago,) to feed the starving and dying millions in four provinces, and it says thousands are dying on the road side, looking for something to eat, and finding it not. The editor has cabled a thousand dollars to the same committee, (as before) and the state department at Washington endorses the movement of the Herald, and the "ministers" latest dispatches from China confirm the most serious reports of famine.

I shall take pleasure in sending my check for any monies for this purpose, and it is greatly to be desired that our people respond quickly and liberally.

All contributions will be acknowledged in the Herald.

FINE AMATEUR ENTERTAINMENT

By Young Ladies of Centenary Church.

The Spinster's Return Greeted by a Very Large Audience Last Night At Neese's Hall—Every One Pleased With the Performance—Those Who Represented the Various Characters.

One of the most largely attended amateur entertainments ever given here was "The Spinster's Return" presented last night at Neese's hall by the young people of Centenary M. E. church in the interest of the Philathea class of that church. It is estimated that seven or eight hundred people were present. Such a great attendance was not anticipated and only 500 tickets were printed, it becoming necessary to use some of the tickets twice.

The play was thoroughly enjoyable. Members of the audience expressed themselves warmly in their praise of the splendid entertainment given. The costumes were especially mirth-provoking, old styles of bonnets, dresses and hairdressing prevailing. Old fashioned carpet-bags, band-boxes, bird cages and so forth were carried. Hand, mirrors, combs and brushes, powder puffs and other beautifiers were slyly used in a way to produce numerous ripples of laughter.

The cast of characters was as follows:

Josephine Jane Green Solferno, president, Miss Bertha Jones.

Priscilla Abigail Hodge, secretary, Miss Emma Renn.

Calamity Jane Higgins Wireworker, treasurer, Miss Emma Elliott.

Tiny Short Van Tassell, Mrs. Robert Rives.

Rebecca Rachel Sharpe Highflyer, Miss Grace Elliott.

Mary Ann Fraddler Malaprop, Miss Emma Starr.

Patience Desire Mann (Countess Ketchum) Miss Bessie Townsend.

Violet Ann Ruggles, Miss Johnsie Starr.

Charity Longface Puddyfoot, Miss Kate Renn.

Sophia Stuckup Bennett, Miss Anna Bell Rives.

Jerusha Matilda Spriggins, Miss Annie Jones.

Juliet Long Laundesladt, Miss Jessie Sumner.

Betsy Bobbitt, Mrs. L. C. Smith.

Polly Jane Pratt Doolittle, Miss Elsie Hinkle.

Belinda Bluegrass Afraid-Of-His-Face, Miss Virginia Townsend.

Frances Touchmenot, Miss Carrie Ridge.

Florence Lucrenia Goodhope Despair, Miss Merrie Richardson.

Hannah Biggerstaff Slocum, Miss Bessie Ridge.

Count Ketchum, I. N. Reynolds.

Young Man Afraid-Of-His-Face, an Indian, Lee Cranford.

Samantha, Ruby Faulkner.

Betsey Ann, Nellie Bain.

Peggy Maria, Margaret Bain.

Sophia Jane, Lena Hinkle.

Nathaniel Isaac, Carrie Atkison.

Jehosaphat, Oscar Sumner.

John Jacob, Thomas Jones.

Jeremiah, Eckie Faulkner.

Orchestra—Miss Bessie Wooters, accordion; Miss Sallie Embrey, pianist; Mrs. Harry Lewis, violinist.

The young people in the play request public acknowledgement to be made of the great assistance which Miss Rosalie Smith, a G. F. C. graduate in elocution, rendered at a number of rehearsals.

Minority Report on Torrens System.

Mr. W. R. Land, of the commission appointed two years ago to investigate the Torrens system of titles, has sent in a minority report in which he recommends that courts for the registration of land titles similar to the Torrens system be not established. He states in his report that such a system would be too expensive in that it would cost a person owning land several times the amount he now has to pay for registering his title with the county register of deeds. R. A. Crowell, of Albemarle, was the only member who did not meet with the commission, the other three members favoring the system.

There will be some pretty pictures sold at the rummage sale, good subjects and well framed. Room foremrly occupied by Patterson Bros. Friday and Saturday, Jan. 27 and 28.

MR. S. FRANK ELDRIDGE DIED SUDDENLY YESTERDAY

Passed Away Shortly Before Noon While Sitting in His Chair—Funeral This Afternoon From Residence.

His many friends throughout the city will learn with regret of the death of Mr. S. Frank Eldridge, which occurred yesterday morning at 11:20 o'clock at his home on Blandwood avenue. Mr. Eldridge had been ill for nearly two years, but his death was entirely unexpected and comes as a great shock to relatives and friends. He was sitting in his chair reading a paper when the death summons came suddenly.

Mr. Eldridge was 63 years of age and is survived by his wife and eight children, Miss Hattie Eldridge, of Washington, D. C.; Misses Ruby, Pearl and Beryl Eldridge and Messrs. Irving and Frank, of this city, and Messrs. Chauncey and Bert Eldridge, of Danville. Also four sisters, Mrs. M .C. Kelly, of Richmond; Mrs. Sam B. Godfrey, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Jacob Eddy, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. Lucus Wisheart, of Riverside, N. J.

Mr. Eldridge was born in Philadelphia in 1848. He came South in 1871 and located at Greensboro where in 1872 he was married to Miss Emma Heath, of this city. He afterwards moved to Charlotte but returned to Greensboro 15 years ago. Until he was taken ill he was engaged in the hardwood business. He was well known and was held in high esteem by all.

The funeral will be held from the late residence this afternoon at 5 o'clock, conducted by his pastor, Rev. E. K. McLarty, of West Market Street Methodist church. The remains will be taken to Charlotte on No. 11 tomorrow morning for interment in the Charlotte cemetery beside his two deceased children.

LIBERTY WEDDING.

Miss Nellie May Patterson and Mr. Roy C. Reitzel United in Marriage.

Liberty, Jan. 26.—One of the most charming social events of the season occurred at the home of Mrs. S. L. Patterson yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Nellie Gray, her daughter, was given in marriage to Mr. Roy C. Reitzel, of Liberty.

The parlor was beautifully decorated, the white and green color scheme being artistically carried out in ferns, ivy, carnations and white satin ribbon. Rev. F. D. King, of Jonesboro, pastor of the bride and groom, performed the ceremony. He stood at the altar, which was made of two upright pillars, draped in white and green, on top of which were the white and green candles. Above these were suspended two large white herats on which were the letters "R.-P." in green. The bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march rendered by Mrs. John Guy Reitzel, sister of the bride.

First entered the maid of honor, Miss Irene Patterson, cousin of the bride, dressed in ashes of lavender messaline with black picture hat, carrying carnations and ferns. Next came the ring bearer, Master R. D. Patterson, Jr., in white, carrying the ring on a white satin heart surrounded by violets, in a small silver tray. Then came the bride and groom. The bride wore a handsome going away gown of brown Panama serge with hat and gloves to match. She carried a shower bouquet of violets.

The large number of relatives and friends present were ushered into the east parlor by Misses Annie Lou Smith and Ora Brower in green crepe de chene with black picture hats carrying carnations.

The bride is a daughter of the late Dr. A. J. Patterson and is loved by all who know her. Mr. Reitzel is a son of Mr. G. W. Reitzel and is one of our most promising young business men.

The valuable presents received attested the popularity of the young couple.

They left on the 3:45 train for a northern tour.

Southern Commercial Congress.

Mr. B. F. Arthur, representing the Southern Commercial Congress, was in the city yesterday in the interest of a great meeting of the Congress to be held in Atlanta soon. This is going to be one of the biggest events in the recent history of the South, Mr. Arthur states. He showed the reporter a telegram from Mr. H. Grosvenor Dawe, managing director of the Southern Commercial Congress, stating that the city of Atlanta would arrange a banquet for eighteen-hundred people. Some of the best known men in the country, including Woodrow Wilson, will be present at one or more sessions of the congress.

The rummage sale Friday and Saturday will be held in the room on South Elm recently vacated by Patterson Bros. Some of the things to be sold are practically new and they will be put at prices that will make them go.

MR. A. M. RANKIN DEAD

Passed Away Suddenly About Noon—Had Been Invalid For Years.

Mr. A. M. Rankin, who has been an invalid for several years, died quite suddenly yesterday about noon at the home of his brother, Mr. J. A. Rankin, about four miles north of town. Mr. Rankin has been in bad health for quite a while, but there was no indication that his condition was worse to any extent, until he suddenly expired while sitting in his chair eating his dinner.

The funeral services will be held from Buffalo Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a member, this afternoon at three o'clock conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Goodman, and the interment will take place in the famil plot in the church grace yard.

Below is given a short sketch of his life:

Albert McCuiston Rankin, second son of Moses and Caroline Rankin, was born in Guilford county, Oct. 24, 1858. After receiving the rudiments of an education in the newly established graded schools of Greensboro, he entered Chapel Hill in the fall of 1879 and remained there for two years. He went from there to Cheraw, S. C., where he engaged in teaching. While he taught, he also read law under the eminent lawyer and jurist, Gen. W. L. T. Prince. He was admitted to the bar and some time thereafter was elected to represent his county, Chesterfield, in the legislature. Being interested in education he introduced and secured the passage of the first bill to establish a graded school in South Carolina. He met violent opposition at first in his efforts to inaugurate graded schools in his adopted State, but so well pleased did the people become with the outcome, that he was returned to the Legislature for three more successive terms, and his name was being prominently mentioned for Congress when his health became impaired. In addition to Cheraw, he also taught successfully in Orangeburg, Florence and Darlington, and then for some time before his health completely gave way, he did an extensive office law practice. But the life that was so full of promise was to be blighted by disease. Little by little locomotor ataxia slowly and stealthily crept upon him, and for the last fifteen years of his life, he has been an invalid, and for the last seven years he has been almost helpless in his brother's home, where has received the tenderest and most painstaking care possible from those who loved him.

Mr. Rankin was twice married, first in 1886 to Miss Prince, the daughter of his law teacher, who lived less than one year after marriage, and then in 1889 to Mrs. Willie Prince widow of his first wife's brother, who survives him, together with two brothers and three sisters.

RUNAWAY MATCH

Bride Was of Age and Police Were Powerless To Carry Out Her Father's Instructions To Block the Wedding.

Police headquarters here got word by telephone yesterday afternoon to intercept, on the arrival of the Winston train, a couple who were bent on getting married without parental approval.

Sergeant Jones and Officer Patterson were on the lookout when the train from Winston arrived. They located the couple in the waiting room.

"I am Mrs. Spock, of Asheville," the lady said, with great nervousness and trepidation, when interrogated as to her identity.

"I beg pardon," said one of the officers suavely, "You are Miss Bertha Snipes, of Winston-Salem, and we have instructions from your father to prevent you from getting married."

"I don't care, I am twenty-three years old," the lady replied.

This ended the matter so far as the police were concerned. The couple were married by Justice of the Peace J. G. Fowler at his residence on South Greene street at 7:30 o'clock. The groom is Mr. Gilbert King, who is employed by the Hotel Raleigh in Washington City.

After the marriage word came from the father in Winston that all was forgiven.

Mr. and Mrs. King had planned to go right on to Washington, but as they did not leave on No. 38 it is presumed that they decided to accept the peace overtures from Winston and go back there for a short stay before going to Washington.

There are a few sewing machines to be sold at the rummage sale Friday and Saturday, good machines at small prices. Patterson's old stand.

A baby jumper as good as new will be sold at a bargain at the rummage sale. Patterson's old stand. Friday and Saturday, Jan. 27 and 28.

RECOMMEND NEW CHARTER

Over Hundred Citizens Favor Plan.

Say They Believe the Law a Wise One and Meets Demand For Improvement In City's Affairs—Favorably Impressed With Success of Plan In Other Cities—Each Voter Urged to Give Matter His Attention.

To the Voters of the City of Greensboro:

We, the undersigned citizens and voters of the city of Greensboro have been favorably impressed by the results of the experience of other cities, and for other reasons, with the advantages of the Commission Form of Municipal Government.

The ideas, in the adoption of this form of government, are to put the government of the city where the will of the people can be made effective, and where each citizen who is entitled to vote can easily be given a voice in the affairs of the city government; and to concentrate responsibility upon a few men; and pay them so that this form of government will result in an improvement in the general welfare of Greensboro; and we believe that the bill to be voted upon on the 7th of February is wise and substantially meets the demand for an improvement in the city affairs, and we trust it will appeal to the wisdom of the people of this city, and receive a large majority.

We call this important matter to the attention of all the voters, and ask each one of them to give the matter his attention.

Respectfully,

MARRIAGE AT PLEASANT GARDEN

Miss Mary Wright Becomes Bride of Mr. Rufus Burgess, of Ramseur.

Yesterday at 11 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wright, at Pleasant Garden, their daughter, Miss Mary Reolla, became the bride of Mr. Rufus C. Burgess, of Ramseur. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. A. Taylor in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the couple, the marriage having been kept a secret from all except close friends. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Burgess left for their home near Ramseur. Among those who attended the marriage were Messrs. W. A. Hendrix, Cleo Burgess and George Smith, of this city, and Miss Lucy York, of Ramseur.

OBJECTED TO DOG IN BED.

Little Terrier Caused Fastidious New York Husband to Leave His Happy Home.

New York Press.

John Dannenweiter's fastidiousness put him in an awkward position in the Domestic Relations Court, Brooklyn, yesterday morning, for, just because he objected to letting a terrier sleep on the foot of his bed, he felt constrained to leave his home and face a lonely world without the companionship of Mrs. Dannenweiter. And the terrier was only such a little one. It was big enough, however, to come between the Dannenweiters, who live in 411 Seventeenth street, until Magistrate Dooley adjourned the hearing to give the two a chance for reconciliation.

"I have no objection to dogs—in their place, Judge," said the husband firmly, "but I respectfully submit the foot of a man's bed is not the place for the best-behaved dog in the world."

"My Tiny is a thoroughly good little dog, Mr. Magistrate," broke in Mrs. Dannenweiter. "He wouldn't harm anybody."

"I have nothing to say about his character or disposition," returned Dannenweiter. "It's his nature to which I object. A dog has to have a dog's nature, and he is a dog. There is no use trying to disguise the fact that the most amiable of terriers after all is just a dog. I won't have a dog sleeping on my bed."

"The best thing for both of you to do," was Magistrate Dooley's ruling, "is to talk it over and see if you can't agree on a place for the dog to sleep. I must say I appreciate Danneweiter's point of view. He has a right to be exclusive toward dogs when it comes to having them as bedfellows. But maybe Mrs. Dannenweiter will consent to let Tiny slumber on one of her silk sofa cushions, or on a bureau scarf or a Persian rug. Perhaps it would be a good idea to let the terrier curl himself up under the rubber plant at night. Anyway, man and wife shouldn't fall out about a dog, especially such a little one."

The Dannenweiters left the courtroom arm in arm. It was reported late last night that Tiny had disappeared mysteriously.

A RELIABLE COUGH MEDICINE

Is a valuable friend. Foley's Honey and Tar fulfils this condition exactly. Mrs. Charles Kline, N. 8th St., Easton, Pa., states: "Several members of my family have been cured of bad coughs and colds by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar and I am never without a bottle in the house. It soothes and relieves the irritation in the throat and loosens up the cold. I have always found it a reliable cough cure." Howard Gardner.

FAIRY-TALE WEDDING.

Happened in India, With Bride a Half-Divine Princess.

Lahore Cor. New York American.

The most elaborate preparations are being made for the fetes to be held at Kpurhaala, in honor of the marriage of Prince Paranjit-Singh, son and heir of the Maharajah of Kapurthala, and the Princess Brinda de Jubal, a descendant of the most ancient and illustrious caste in India. The antenuptial festivities will take place during the first five days of February, and will be attended in state by all the great princes of India.

At KaKpurthala, the capital of the State, the Maharajah has a wonderful palace and one of the richest in money and jewels of the native rulers of India. The wedding festivities in this palace, with music, dancing girls, feasting and the princes, their families and trains in royal robes covered with priceless jewels, will be like a story from the "Thousand and One Nights."

The Princess is of such ancient lineage as to be regarded as of half divine origin, and is treated with the highest veneration by the Hindus. She was educated in Paris and follows the latest modes from that city of fashions, but is partial to the graceful native dress of her rank and possesses some of the most wonderful pearls known. She will appear in both native and European dress duringing the feasts, but will be married in the native wedding dress.

Prince Paranjit-Singh was educated in France and England and is a thorough cosmopolitan. But, like his wife-to-be, he is very patriotic, and will train himself to succeed his father as a wise ruler. The royal pair will make occasional visits to London and Paris and will be prominent and gorgeous figures in the coronation ceremonies.

Home protection is true wisdom. Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve ought to be in every home for its quick relief and prevention of two dangerous diseases and the more common ailments such as Colds, Catarrh, Burns and Chaps.

Solves a Deep Mystery.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B. Rader, of Lewisburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters, in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters has no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

the celebrated Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup frequently, because it is the best for colds, coughs, croup and bronchial troubles. Many doctors know that this valuable remedy is a real doctor's prescription and that an untried, offhand prescription will not cure so easily, promptly and thoroughly as

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup

Doctor L. A. Shattuck, 344 Sixth Ave., New York, N. Y., states: "I am using and prescribing Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup myself with most gratifying results. No better formula could be made for catarrhal or bronchial coughs, colds and, in fact, all diseases of the respiratory organs. Its soothing and healing effects are instantaneous and permanent. It is the most effective cough medicine that I have ever used."

TRYING OUT TEXAS.

Bound for State of Balmy Breezes and Redhaired Widows.

Kansas City Star.

From Lemmon, S. Dak., they came bound for Buckeye, Texas. There were seven in the family, and each had all the luggage he could carry as they marched down the long waiting-room at the Union Depot, led by an usher, who carried on his shoulders their immense bundle of blankets.

One of the boys dragged a washing wringer by the handle, and the youngest, a 5-year-old, clung tight to a new, shiny accordion. But the thing that attracted every one in the depot was a huge clothes basket that the father and the oldest boy carried between them. In the basket was a large square box of some sort, covered with a cloth.

"You're not doing your washing on the train, are you?" asked an old man, who moved over on the long bench to give them room to pile their goods.

"No," answered the man with the basket. "We knew we were to be pretty nigh five days on the road, and we laid out to take along enough victuals to see us through.

"I guess we did too," he added, after a pause. "We had that clothes basket and the tin bread box both full when we started. The only mistake was that mother forgot to put in the little oil stove to make the coffee with.

"If we like it well enough at Buckeye after spending the winter there," concluded the father of the family, whose name was Henry Baustin, "we're not going back to Lemmon."

Saves Two Lives.

"Neither my sister nor myself might be living today, if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery," writes A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C., R. F. D. No 8, "for we both had frightful coughs that no other remedy could help. We were told my sister had consumption. She was very weak and had night sweats but your wonderful medicine completely cured us both. It's the best I ever used or heard of." For sore lungs, coughs, colds, hemorrhage, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, croup, whooping cough,—all bronchial troubles,—its supreme. Trial bottle free. 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed by Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY PILLS

Are tonic in action, quick in results. A special medicine for all kidney and bladder disorders. Mary C. Abbott, Wolfeboro, N. H., says: "I was afflicted with a bad case of rheumatism, due to uric acid that my kidneys failed to clear out of my blood. I was so lame in my feet, joints, and back that it was agony for me to step. I used Foley's Kidney Pills for three days when I was able to get up and move about and the pains were all gone. This great change in condition I owe to Foley's Kidney Pills and recommend them to anyone suffering as I have." Howard Gardner.

A Question.

Washington Star.

"We must have no sinecures," said the reformer.

"Well," replied Senator Sorghum, thoughtfully," sometimes I'm in doubt as to which make the most trouble, the fellows with sinecures or those who work overtime getting in the way."

For LaGrippe, Coughs and Stuffy Colds

Take Foley's Honey and Tar. It gives quick relief and expels the cold from your system. It contains no opiates, is safe and sure. Howard Gardner.

"It's a good thing to know when you have enough," remarked the Wise Guy. "And even then you often overestimate your capacity," added the Simple Mug.

For either acute or chronic kidney disorders, for annoying and painful urinary iregularities take Foley's Kidney Pills. An honest and effective medicine for kidney and bladder disorders. Howard Gardner.

"The trouble with lovers young dream," says the Cynical Bachelor, "is that it is always dispelled by the alarm clock of reality."

Foley's Kidney Remedy-An Appreciation

L. McConnell, Catherine St., Elmira, N. Y., writes: "I wish to express my appreciation of the great good I derived from Foley's Kidney Remedy, which I used for a bad case of kidney trouble. Five bottles did the work most effectively and proved to me beyond doubt it is the most reliable kidney medicine I have ever taken." Howard Gardner.

The Famous Rayo

Gives the Best Light at Any Price

When you pay more than the Rayo price for a lamp, you are paying for extra decorations that cannot add to the quality of the light. You can't pay for a better light, because there is none. An oil light has the least effect on the human eye, and the Rayo Lamp is the best oil lamp made, though low in price. You can pay $5, $10, or $20 for some other lamp, and although you get a more costly lamp, you can't get a better light than the white, mellow, diffused, unflickering light of the low-priced Rayo.

Has a strong, durable shade-holder. This season's burner adds to the strength and appearance. Made of solid brass, nickeled, and easily polished.

UNION LABEL GREENSBORO

Read the charter and vote for system, order, specialized training, concentrated effort, and progress.

Any kind of government would be a failure without confidenee in the integrity of man.

The New York General Assembly might take a cue from New Jersey. But then Governor Dix doesn't "take hold" with the assiduity and determination of a Wilson.

Our present system is not only unbusinesslike; it is not progressive. Men cannot control private affairs during the day and run a city at night on a residue of nervous energy. Such a plan cannot certainly be the best for a city that must and will keep pace with modern progress.

Near beer is nearing its final inning in this State, and it is well. Let us have an end of such law-evading devices as near beer and club bars. A majority of 44,000 have said that North Carolina shall be a prohibition State, and the Legislature should see that the will of the peopel is not overturned or thwarted by subterfuge and elusive contrivances.

It is said that David Graham Phillips, a young novelist who the other day met an untimely and tragic death at the hands of a jealous crank in New York city, wrote two books a year with unerring certainty. And the remarkable thing is, that his books were both worthy and popular. Had he lived he might have become America's foremost man of letters, for he was a close student, a clear thinker, and a most careful and painstaking writer. The tragedy is a doubly sad one, not only because of his genius but because of his comparative youth.

The defeat of "boss" Jim Smith, of New Jersey, for the U. S. Senate, by James E. Martine marks another score for popular government in a State that has long been a stronghold of the "interests" and under the domination of machine politicians. Commenting, candidate Smith says that, despite his defeat, he remains true to Democracy, but is not free from forboding that the old party may depart from its former standards. His fears are not groundless; and the wholesome and encouraging thing about it is, that the unmooring of Democracy from its "former standards" in New Jersey seems to be but the result of an awakening, and a manifest public interest in good government that is coming to be nationwide in its scope.

WHY NOT LEARN FROM THE EXPERIENCE OF OTHER CITIES?

The experience of other cities should be helpful to Greensboro. The objections of Mr. Robert Morrison to the power that is given the Superintendent of Schools under the new charter suggest the experience of the city of Baltimore with its schools.

A score of years ago Baltimore's school system was in a deplorable condition. Teachers were selected because they had a "pull" with politicians and not because they could teach.

Public spirited citizens of Baltimore set to work to reform the school system and the principal thing they did was substantially to enlarge the powers of the superintendent. That official has had a fight on his hands from the jump and war is still being waged against him. But Baltimore has a school system of which she is proud and one which is impregnable to the assaults of the politicians.

Greensboro can wait a dozen years or so to profit from Baltimore's experience but a vastly wiser course would be to profit from it right now.

MODE.

The women will soon have an opportunity to even up with those masculine sportmakers who have found so much delight in ridiculing the hobble skirt and the never-ending variety of modern headgear; for the custom tailors in convention assembled did the other day send out an edict that the meal-sack trousers and the loose-fitting coat are to be displaced by a garb diametrically opposite in fashion and fit. The trousers are to be of the close-fitting style worn in the days of Nicholas Nickleby and Old Scrooge, and will be a boon to the short, chunky gentleman, who may, by a dexterous manipulation of the scissors in the hands of the tailor, appear, by a sort of illusory process, some two inches taller. But by an oversight or a wilful indifference to his precarious situation, the cutters have, by a tyrranical use of their powers, placed the gentleman holding a card of membership in the moon-fixers union in a most humiliating plight. What is he to do? One would as well be out of the world as to kick against the ukase of fashion and undertake to appear in society wearing a suit which everyone would at once suspect was bought at a knock-down sale of last season's leftovers. But we believe he will suffer. No tailor's decree will force the man with the spindle-shanks and the concave thorax to bind up his femural appendages with tights and his diaphragm with a corset-fitting coat; or, if he does submit, it will be late in the season, when hope is lost and he sees there is no other chance for him to win honorable recognition. And what makes the situation of our lean friend even more desperate is, that he must lose all padding from the shoulder, and every inch of superfluous cloth, says the decree, must be saved to the tailor.

Fashion is despotic, but all the game ones will swear by his lordship, the tailor; and the good women who have so patiently and courageously stood for their rights will have the tables turned and, for one season, at least, a chance to laugh at the foibles of the weaker sex.

PASTORAL EVANGELISM.

(Communicated.)

There is no reason why the pastors of this city cannot conduct revival services without securing the aid of an evangelist. When an evangelist is engaged certain conditions must be met, or he declines to come. Recently Dr. Wilbur Chapman and corps of evangelists conducted meetings in Chicago and 50,000 people professed conversion, also. "Billy" Sunday recently closed one of the greatest revival campaigns at New Castle, Pa., about 6,700 converts were made. There are three propositions that are always agreed to when an evangelist is employed to hold a meeting. Christians agree to: (1) pray for the meetings; (2) to attend the meetings; (3) to work for the salvation of souls, and the result is an ingathering. If the Christians of the city will do just these three things during February, March and April, every church in the city will experience a refreshing from the presence of the Lord, An appeal is made by the pastors for hearty co-operation.

Next Sunday morning is "Family Altar day." Each pastor will preach a sermon on the subject and strong appeals will be made for the erecting of altars in the homes.

Parents are invited to attend the service and are urged to bring their children.

The Family Name.

Atchison Globe.

A man who is really thoughtful of the Family Name should begin to think about it quite a while before it occurs to him to enter the name of John Doe on the police blotter.

The fellow who laughs and grows fat isn't the one who laughs in his sleeve.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all the other diseases put together, and until the last few years was ssupposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucuous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

An Eccentric Bishop.

Bishop Wilson of Calcutta had as housekeeper a venerable lady who remembered the duel between Sir Philip Francis and Warren Hastings on Aug. 17, 1780. On entering the cathedral on a Sunday morning, fully robed, lawn sleeves and all, and passing the pew where the old lady sat he would pause and give her the "kiss of peace" before all the congregation, and this although he had met her at breakfast.

His sermons, too, were racy. Preaching against dishonesty, especially in horseflesh, as one of the great English failings in India, he went on, "Nor are we, servants of the altar, free from yielding to this temptation." Pointing to the occupant of the reading desk below him: "There is my dear and venerable brother the archdeacon, down there. He is an instance of it. He once sold me a horse. It was unsound. 'I was a stranger, and he took me in.'"

Scientist Who Couldn't Light a Fire.

Lord Kelvin, like Lord Morley, once amused a Scottish audience with a display of ignorance. At a lecture in Edinburgh, with Lord Kelvin in the chair, the Duke of Argyll was taken suddenly ill. "When the aged peer was carried down to one of the anterooms," said a local paper, "one of the first things to be thought of was the lighting of a fire, and this task was tackled by the duke's host, Lord Kelvin. But instead of placing some paper in the grate and some wood on that in the orthodox manner he amazed the onlookers by desperate efforts to kindle a handful of sticks at a gas burner. Ordinary mortals may be pardoned for taking some satisfaction in the fact that even so great a philosopher as Lord Kelvin did not know how to light a fire."

GREEKS DENOUNCE TURKEY.

Protest at Big Meeting Against Ceding of Crete to Sultan.

New York World.

When 100 Greeks met in Webster Hall, in East Eleventh street, yesterday afternoon to protest against the granting by the powers of sovereign rights to Turkey in the isle of Crete Father Methodios Kourkolis, pastor of the Greek church in Manhattan, told his friends that he would keep in the background and not make a speech. He feared something might happen to his family, which is at present in Mytelin, Turkey, if he took too prominent a part.

But as Greek after Greek poured out denunciation of the power hated by all the Greeks the priest could not keep still. The end of the meeting found him protesting quite as eloquently as any of the others. Prof. M. Ion of Boston University was the principal speaker. The meeting adopted resolutions calling upon President Taft to present a protest to the powers.

Entertained At Dinner.

COMMISSION PLAN.

Mr. Morrison Objects to the Superintendent of Schools Being Made the Boss.

Tot the Voters:

The sub-committee of the Chamber of Commerce, having in charge the matter of schools for the city, instead of putting the control of the city schools in the board of commissioners, the charter as adopted, really puts the schools in the hands of the superintendent of schools. Upon its face it looks the other way. But read Sections 20 and 23:

"Sec. 20. The board of commissioners is charged with the duty of electing, biannually, a competent, skilled and expert man as superintendent of the public schools of Greensboro, and also such other teachers and employees for the conduct of such schools as may be necessary and for such time as they may indicate; provided, all teachers and other employees in said school shall be elected from a list submitted to the board by the superintendent, and if the board is unable or refuses to elect from the list so furnished, it shall call on the superintendent from time to time for other lists, which it shall be his duty to furnish.

"Sec. 23. He shall have immediate and direct control over all teachers, and janitors of the school buildings, and other persons in charge thereof, and shall be responsible for their efficiency, and he shall have power to discharge any teacher, or other employee connected with the schools, for any cause satisfactory to himself, and to maintain discipline and order, and establish rules and regulations for the government of the schools, and from his authority, with respect to these matters, there shall be no appeal."

It will be seen from Section 20 that instead of controlling the election of teachers and other employees, the board is bound hand and foot by the selections or "lists" furnished by the superintendent of schools.

And further, if there was any doubt as to the intent along this line, read Section 23, which gives the superintendent undisputed power as to discharging all employees and teachers, making rules and regulations, etc., and from his authority there is no appeal.

Thus it will be seen that the only power remaining in the board is to "recall" or discharge the superintendent of schools, to levy, collect and disburse the money arising for school purposes.

It is natural to enquire as to why a superintendent of schools should be clothed with such autocratic power? Does he belong to the beef trust or the book trust, that his judgment cannot be enquired into. No appeal!

Why should every other employee elected by the board have an appeal to the full board (Section 14) except teachers and other employees of the schools, especially so, when a majority of the teachers are women? No appeal!

And again, no other form of commission government that has come under my observation attempts to manage the schools, but they are left to an independent board. In Houston, Texas, the schools are conducted by an unpaid school board very much like the one we have had for years. Then why the change here? Have our school boards been incompetent or derlict in duty? If we are to have a commission form why not follow the plan laid down for schools in other towns? Why follow in other matters and not in schools? This plan now offered us must be patterned after the plan which was offered Charlotte and which was defeated by a vote of 1,600 to 185.

ROBERT MORRISON.

Building Permits.

Permits were issued yesterday to Mr. J. A. Hodgin for the erection of a $2,000 residence on Arlington street. Also to the Greensboro Ice and Coal Company for a cooling tower at the ice plant, the cost being about $1,000.

NOTICE.

We take this method of notifying the public that the firm of Poezolt & Patterson has this day been dissolved by mutual consent, Harry Poezolt having sold his entire interest to J. E. Keith and O. W. Patterson, who will conduct the tailoring business at the old stand. The name of the new firm will be Keith & Patterson. They will pay all indebtedness of the old firm and will receive payment of all bills due the old firm.

This the 26th day of Jan., 1911.

A Good Sleeper.

Talleyrand used to tell an extraordinary story of the impassiveness of Louis XVIII. When he was minister of foreign affairs a courier came to him one evening bearing unpleasant news, and he therefore postponed the communication of it to the king till next morning, when he explained that he was afraid the tidings might have disturbed his majesty's sleep. The king replied: "Nothing disturbs my sleep, as you may see from this instance. The most dreadful blow of my life was my brother's death. The courier who brought this dreadful news arrived at 8 o'clock in the evening. For many hours I was quite overcome, but at midnight I went to bed and slept my usual eight hours." The story is told by the Duchesse de Dino, Talleyrand's niece, in her memoirs.

Sons of Butchers.

Three of the stained glass windows in the hall of the Butcher Guild, London, contain the portraits of Cardinal Wolsey, William Shakespeare and Daniel Defoe in recognition of their connection with the meat trade.

The cardinal was the son of a "respectable" butcher at Ipswich, in Suffolk, and "the immortal bard" assisted while a youngster a butcher in his native town of Stratford-on-Avon.

Defoe, nowadays known as the author of "Robinson Crusoe," but in his day an adventurer and secret agent of his government, was the son of a butcher in Fore street and a member of the guild.—National Provisioner.

"The Root of Evil"

The New Novel

by

THOMAS DIXON, JR.

Mr. Dixon's greatest book.

A romance of power and of import for the whole American people. It does not concern one section only, or deal with a provincial problem. It is a splendidly told tale of American life in this day and for this generation. For the woman in the story it is a struggle between love and a desire for luxury. For the man a bitter conflict between the temptation of unlimited wealth and power and the allurements of an old affection which spells moral surrender.

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unanimous About It.

Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has used it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

JUST Rheumacide IT CURES

Rheumatism and Blood Diseases

The cause of rheumatism is excess uric acid in the blood. To cure rheumatism this acid must be expelled from the system. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. Rubbing with oils and liniments may ease the pain, but they will no more cure rheumatism than paint will change the fiber of rotten wood.

Cures Rheumatism To Stay Cured.

Science has discovered a perfect and complete cure called Rheumacide. Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected marvelous cures. Rheumacide removes the cause, gets at the joints from the inside, sweeps the poisons out of the system, tones up the stomach, regulates the bowels and kidneys. Sold by druggists at 50c. and $1; in the tablet form at 5c. and 50c., by mail. Booklet free. Bobbitt Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

MRS. GROVER CLEVELAND.

Widow of Former President a Spectator at Ellis Island.

New York American.

Mrs. Frances Folsom Cleveland, widow of Grover Cleveland, was a guest of Immigration Commissioner William Williams at Ellis Island yesterday afternoon. She went over on the Government ferryboat and, in spite of the entreaties of her escorts, elected to stay on the lower deck and watch the groups of excited relatives and friends who were on their way to meet immigrants.

"I went to Ellis Island," said Mrs. Cleveland, "because I was invited and because I had never been there before. Commissioner Williams showed me everything there was to be seen from the landing of immigrants to their examination by the doctors. I also inspected the detention room. I do not intend to become particularly interested in any philanthropic work at the island."

A Frolic At the Y. W. C. A. Tonight.

The frolic at the Young Women's Christian Association tonight promises to be one of the most enjoyable in which the members have ever participated. There will be no room for dull care, for all are to be children once more, dressed as children, playing children's games, and forgetting for the time the responsibilities of grown-ups. Of course some will have to be grandmamas and nurses, for so many little girls will need someone to soothe the bumps and settle the childish quarrels. A happy time is anticipated by the association members.

Goes to Lexington.

Mrs. Fink and children, whose circumstances were described in Wednesday's Telegram, were yesterday sent to Lexington by Lieut. Miller, of the Salvation Army, employment having been secured there. A number of Greensboro people responded to the call for aid and furnished funds to secure transportation to that point.

PUBLIC MEETING MONDAY NIGHT IN COURT HOUSE.

Those Who Oppose New Charter Invited To Participate in Discussion by Mr. Brandt.

Mr. L. J. Brandt last night sent the following letter to Mr. E. E. Bain:

Mr. E. E. Bain, Greensboro, N. C.

My Dear Sir:—I have noted with interest the communication published by you and Mr. Coble in today's papers. Either you and Mr. Coble, or the citizens who favor the proposed Commission form of government, are in error to a considerable extent.

I am of the opinion that lengthy newspaper articles is not the best way to acquaint the voters with the true facts in the case, and I am sure none of us want to mislead the people by being in error.

In a former newspaper article you urged the voters not to sign petitions favorable to the new form of government until they had had an opportunity to hear the merits of the case discussed. On the following day, in an open newspaper letter, I suggested a plan whereby the voters could have this opportunity, that is, a joint discussion at the court house on next Monday night. You have not seen fit to accept this proposition though I have waited two days (and the time is getting short).

This is the only way the matter can be fairly and satisfactorily presented to our citizens, and I am sure it can be done in an agreeable way and free from all disagreeable personalities.

It is the purpose of the supporters of the proposed new government to hold a public meeting in the court house on next Monday night at eight o'clock, and we hereby invite you and any others who are opposed to the plan, to appoint some one to act for you to arrange for a division of time in a joint discussion.

I am authorized by a number of gentlemen who favor the plan to act for them in making the necessary arrangements for the speaking.

It is important that some definite program be arranged in order to avoid any interruptions or disorder.

Respectfully yours.

L. J. BRANDT.

False Pretense Charged.

A white man by the name of Charlie Allred, was arrested yesterday at White Oak on the charge of securing property under false pretense, the offense having been committed in Randolph county. The prisoner was carried to Franklinville yesterday by Deputy Slack, of that county, to stand trial.

Aldermen Meet Tonight.

The Board of Aldermen meet tonight in regular session. Among other business will be the report of the committee to suggest amendments to the present city charter to be passed in case the commission plan does not carry.

Mass Meeting Tomorrow.

Tomorrow morning in the court house will be held a mass meeting of citizens of the county opposed to the formation of Piedmont county by taking a portion of Guilford. All who are opposed to this action are urged to attend and map out plans for action.

This is what Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ledbetter said on January 22:

"Gentlemen: Last night our daughter, age five years, was taken suddenly with pneumonia. We used 1-2 box of Mother's Joy as directed, and today she is almost well, thanks to the good remedy so near at hand and so cheap. This was a violent case, and hope you success. 520 Laura avenue."

Health, Comfort and Plumbing.

The health and comfort of the home are greatly influenced by its plumbing equipment.

A modern bathroom installed by us means the zenith of satisfaction and service for you.
